RAIN, COOLING WINDS RELIEVE SOME SECTIONS

Southern Illinois is Still Sweltering Today, However

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Rains and cooling winds brought seasonal temperatures today to most of the heat-seared areas.

Southern Illinois still sweltered, however, in a withering wave that ranged upwards from 100 degrees. Wells, streams and reservoirs have been burned dry. Farmers are carrying water from oases for their families and beasts.

Showers spotted the midwest and northwest, bringing a cool respite. Up in Aberdeen, S. D., two inches of rain late yesterday clogged sewers and stood in streets. The rain was general over northeastern South Dakota and southern North Dakota. St. Paul was cooled off with a 10 degree drop.

The precipitation pushed south into central and southern Nebraska. Omaha was swept by a rainstorm and the thermometer dropped 26 degrees in two hours—from 96 to 70. In Lincoln a half inch of rain brought a heat drop of 22 degrees. Over the state the temperatures ranged below 90.

Southwest Iowa was doused with a good downpour last night, leaving the southeastern counties the only part of the state still in need of a good rain.

Throughout the southwest, the hottest part of the nation two days ago, reasonable temperatures generally prevailed.

Light local showers cooled off Ohio, with temperatures generally in the 80's. One heat death was reported.

In New York City the heat wave lingers on with no relief in sight. Thousands have been sleeping at the beaches at night and the heat caused three deaths yesterday.

REPORTS FROM SOUTHWEST.
St. Louis, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Reports made public today by railroad officials and business concerns, which have made a survey of the effects of the present drought, indicated that tremendous damage had been done to farm crops, especially corn.

Loss of 50 per cent of the corn crop in southeast Missouri and southern Illinois, and almost complete destruction of pastures in many regions were included in the reports. Damage to corn in many instances is said to be beyond hope of any relief from possible rain.

Some of the bottom lands in southeast Missouri are a little better than the average in corn, although these, too, as a rule are in poor condition. Farmers in this section have been carrying water for irrigation as a result of wells drying up, especially in the hilly country.

Cattle are being moved to market earlier than usual because of the condition of pastures.

Conditions Unfavorable.
W. I. English of Springfield, Supervisor of Agriculture for the Frisco Railway, reported unfavorable conditions throughout the territory served by the Frisco, with exception of a few communities where they had a series of local showers. Wheat escaped serious damage, he said, but corn is damaged 40 to 50 per cent and is a complete loss in many sections of hilly land.

Fruit crops have not suffered greatly, although English estimated the apple crop had been reduced 20 per cent.

Cotton has suffered little, except in some exceptionally dry areas.

W. G. Vollmer, Assistant to L. W. Baldwin, president of the Missouri Pacific, reported early corn in the territory served by that railroad virtually destroyed. The late crop, he said, is badly in need of rain. He said the adverse weather conditions had the greatest effect upon dairy- and livestock industry, because of the drying up of pastures and the curtailment of hay and feed.

Some Oddities In Wire News Today From Various Parts

ONE FOR THE JUDGE

Willimantic, Conn., Aug. 7.—(UP)—The judge of Police Court had to decide today whether John Eddy assaulted Eddy John or Eddy John assaulted John Eddy.

The men, brothers-in-law, were arraigned on charges of assault with intent to kill after an argument in which a baseball bat was used.

The court decided John Eddy acted in self defense and nolle prosequit. Eddy John was bound over to Criminal Superior Court.

EMBASSY WALLS BARE

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Uncle Sam has become an owner of new homes abroad, but he was found today to have searched his cellars and garrets in vain for a forgotten item needed to make them money.

The court decided John Eddy acted in self defense and nolle prosequit. Eddy John was bound over to Criminal Superior Court.

When provisions were made for the furnishing of embassies and consulates the government is building to house its foreign missions, nothing was said about pictures for the walls.

As a result the Foreign Buildings Commission charged with the furnishing the new buildings finds itself unable to purchase the finest of almost everything, except pictures. Under the present laws the walls must remain bare.

INITIALS SUSPICIOUS

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Even a man's initials can get him in trouble in Evansville.

Officer Oscar Swanson yesterday stopped a motorist who had driven through a stop light. The policeman started the usual one-way conversation about telling red from green and knowing how to drive and so on when the motorist suggested that the officer might not know to whom he was talking.

"Well, who are you?"

"I'm K. O. Roberts," replied the motorist.

"Oho, a tough prize fighter, eh?" said Swanson and he summoned two more officers and took the man to the police station. There it developed that it really was K. O. Roberts, not "Kayo" Roberts, and that he was a school teacher who had never been inside of a prize ring. The case was dismissed.

SUGGESTION ACCEPTED

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Unless some effective means of silencing chickens is discovered before August 29, Harry Resnick will have to move.

The neighbors complained of the noises emanating from Resnick's back yard. The hens and roosters he harbors there, they said, make sleep impossible after daybreak and this, to a city dweller, means a considerable loss of sleep.

Judge Francis Morrell, to whom the case was finally referred yesterday, agreed with the neighbors that chicken noises come under the class of disturbances in a large city. Resnick would have to do something about it, the judge said.

"But I can't muzzle the roosters or hush up the hens," Resnick replied. "The only thing I can do is move out of town."

"That's a good idea," returned Judge Morrell, "make it before August 29."

Gangsters Battled To Death In Street

New Orleans, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Frank Mullen, identified by authorities as a former convict, and "Rube" Chisolm shot each other to death early today in a gun fight at a residential street intersection.

Chisolm was identified by nearby residents who said they were awakened by five shots and the sound of a woman screaming.

A search was begun for the woman and authorities advanced the theory that one of the men attempted to hold up the other and met with resistance.

HUSTON QUILTS AS CHAIRMAN REPUBLICANS

Resignation Accepted and Fess Named to Carry on Work

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Claudius H. Huston of Tennessee submitted his promised resignation as Republican National Chairman to the party's executive committee today and direction of the fall campaign was turned over to Senator Fess of Ohio and Robert H. Lucas of Kentucky.

Fess, a staunch administration supporter, was appointed Chairman of the National Committee.

Lucas, present Commissioner of Internal Revenue, was named Executive Chairman. He will carry the burden of directing the party forces in the approaching campaigns and will resign his Treasury Post soon to devote his entire time to the new job.

George Deb. Keim, Edgewater Park, New Jersey, a retired banker, was appointed Secretary of the National Committee to succeed Representative Franklin Fort, New Jersey, resigned.

Vacancies Filled

Other vacancies on the National Committee filled at the meeting were Ernest Lee Jahncke, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, National Committeeman from Louisiana, to succeed the late Emilie Kuntz.

Ezra R. Whitla, Coeur d'Alene, National Committeeman from Idaho, in place of Senator Thomas, resigned.

After the meeting Senator Fess told newspapermen he had accepted the chairmanship in "the belief there is a great work to be done."

He said the economic depression would cause some disaffection and this necessitated a campaign of education.

"I anticipate continued control of the Republican party in both House and Senate by a safe majority," he said. "The country is Republican and will continue to be so as long as the Republican principles are courageously continued."

"No meeting of the National Committee will be called for some time, unless an expected need for a session should be encountered," the Senator said.

Invites Illinois People To Boston

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 7.—(UP)—Citizens of Illinois were officially welcomed to "cool New England" today to attend Boston's Tercentenary Celebration, now in progress, in a letter received by Governor L. L. Emerson from John P. Fitzgerald, former Boston Mayor.

Fitzgerald invitingly referred to cool breezes at Cape Cod and the mountains and the sea shore in New England where, he said, "during the recent hot spell the temperatures averaged in the seventies."

Hunt Man Accused Of Woman's Murder

Harrisburg, Ill., Aug. 7.—(UP)—An inquest will be held today into the death of Mrs. James Carnett, wife of an Equality, Ill., farmer, who was shot and killed, allegedly by her brother-in-law, Elmer Carnett.

According to police, Carnett shot the woman after beating her sister, Lily Dennison, when a revolver he pointed at her failed to discharge.

Authorities or relatives could ascribe no reason for the shooting. Southern Illinois police were asked to join in the search for Carnett.

GRAIN PRICES UP AND DOWN IN SPECTACULAR TRADING ON EXCHANGE TODAY; CLOSE LOW

Withdrawal of Public's Interest About Noon Cause Of Drops

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(UP)—Grain prices swept through a series of spectacular ups and downs on the Chicago Board of Trade today and ended a session of tumultuous trading fractionally lower than yesterday's close.

Paper millions were added to wavering fortunes in the fast rises but melted just as rapidly in the declines that started around noon under the pressure of profit-taking.

March and May wheat, which hit new highs at the opening, closed at $1.06½ and $1.04½, off respectively ½ and ¼ cents.

March and May corn closed at 98½ and $1.00½, off 1½ and 1½ cents. Three corn futures sold under the dollar mark at the close whereas only one, December, opened below that figure.

The late break came when part of the unusual public interest was withdrawn about noon.

Buying on the dips stemmed the decline somewhat but failed to hold the prices quite to yesterday's levels.

At the opening, buying orders literally swamped the teakwood grain pits in the Board of Trade skyscraper at the foot of La Salle Street.

Miss Helen Hubbard Of Nelson Is Dead

Miss Helen D. Hubbard, practically a life long resident of Nelson township, passed away at her home last evening at 12 o'clock, her death terminating an illness of almost a year's duration. She was born Sept. 20, 1844, in Palmyra township, and was the daughter of Charles Frederick and Helen Graham Hubbard. In her infancy the family moved to the south bank of Rock river in Nelson township where they have since resided. She is survived by one brother, William G., and two sisters, Misses Jessie M. and Amy H. all at home. The funeral arrangements had not been completed today and will be announced later.

Threw Iodine Into Face Of Job-Holder

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(UP)—Two bandits today held up William Slater 28, milk truck driver, robbed him of 70 cents and threw iodine in his face "because he had a job."

"You've got a job; we have none; I'm going to disfigure you," Slater said one of the bandits told him before hurling the iodine into his eyes.

HAWKS CROSSED COUNTRY IN LESS THAN 15 HOURS

Flier Will Next Shoot At Lindbergh's Mark For West-To-East

Los Angeles, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Frank Hawks, Los Angeles aviator, today held the record for the quickest east-west crossing of the United States.

Flying at an average speed of 179 miles per hour, Hawks yesterday drove his low-winged monoplane from Curtiss Field, New York to municipal airport, Los Angeles, in 14 hours 50 minutes and 43 seconds. It was the first time a transcontinental flight had been made in full daylight. The Traveler plane touched the ground here at 5:40:43 P. M. (P.S.T.) after leaving New York at 5 P. M. (E. S. T.).

Hawks lowered by three hours and 32 minutes the recent east-west record set by Roscoe Turner. Hawks made refueling stops at Columbus, Ohio, St. Louis, Wichita, Kas., Albuquerque, N. M., and Kingman, Ariz. Turner made but one stop on his flight.

Hawks encountered stormy weather during most of the 2,600 miles. He flew through rains between Pittsburgh, Pa., and Terre Haute, Ind., and services terms from Albuquerque to the Arizona-California border.

Over Arizona, Hawks said, he was forced to fly off his course to avoid thunderstorms.

Actual Time 13 Hours
Hawks actually flew across the country in 13 hours, 35 minutes and 43 seconds.

Hawks said he was "tired and glad to get here." As he climbed from his plane, his father suggested a game of golf as the shock hands but the aviator took his mother's advice to get some rest first.

The aviator said his plane made a top of 240 miles an hour but that he rarely kept it over 200.

Hawks said he expected to start back to New York in a "few days" in an effort to better the present west-east crossing record of 14 hours 45 minutes set last Easter Sunday by Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh. Hawks said he would stop at Albuquerque, Wichita and Indianapolis on the return flight.

With favorable tail-winds, Hawks predicted his return flight could be made in 12 hours.

Hawks is 33 years old and has been flying 13 years.

BANKRUPT MAN CHARGED WITH DEATH THREAT

Demands More Money For Farm Sold To Satisfy Debts

Ashland, Ill., Aug. 7.—(UP)—Charles Beggs, 65, was held in the county jail here today on charges of threatening to kill and extortion, following his threat to exterminate four men and himself with dynamite yesterday afternoon.

The threat was made by Beggs at a conference at the Skiles-Rearick State Bank, after he had locked the door of the conference room and unwrapped a bundle containing ten sticks of dynamite.

Financial trouble on the part of Beggs, who was forced into bankruptcy in 1929, precipitated the threat. Beggs' farm was sold to Lloyd and Harry Stribling at a price he deemed unreasonable. James Wyatt, cashier of the bank, handled the transaction.

Beggs phoned the Stribling brothers and arranged the conference for the afternoon. When the two brothers, J. P. Stribling and Wyatt appeared in the conference room, Beggs silently closed the only door in the room, locked it, and placed the key in his pocket.

He then proceeded with caution to unwrap a package he carried under his arm. Laying the dynamite sticks on a table Beggs held a fuse to the dynamite in his hands demanding more money for his farm and threatening to "blow us all to atoms, unless you come to my terms."

After an hour and a half in the room, Wyatt moved his position and when Beggs took his hand off the switch to wave him away from a door, J. P. Stribling grabbed the arm and overpowered him.

CLOUDBURST ALONG BORDER BRINGS FLOOD

Loss of Life Unknown; Property Damage Will be High

BULLETIN

Nogales, Arizona, Aug. 7.—(AP)—A torrent of water that swept through the Mexican and American border cities of Nogales early today left four known dead, forty missing and a scene of confusion which led police to believe at least 25 persons had lost their lives.

The bodies of three women were found on the Mexican side of the line and the body of a man was discovered near the banks bridge on the American side. None was identified.

"Many houses have been swept away," the Mexican police reported, "and forty persons are missing."

One hotel and sixteen Mexican homes on the Sonora side were reported by the police there to have been swept away. They did not know how many persons were in the hotel. A. C. Villaseor, Chief of Police, said his officers reported having seen several bodies floating down the street.

Nogales, Ariz., Aug. 7.—(UP)—Floods, which struck the twin cities of Nogales in Arizona and Sonora in Mexico, early today took at least two lives and caused heavy property damage. Other deaths were feared.

Accumulating in the Sonora Hills from heavy showers late Wednesday. The flood waters crumbled 15 adobe buildings in Sonora City and forced occupants into the open.

Three thousand persons were made homeless by the cloudburst, it was estimated. Property damage was calculated at several hundred thousands of dollars.

The bodies of a man and woman, both unidentified Mexicans, were found at daylight floating on this side of the international line. They had been washed down from the Mexican side for more than three miles.

See Three Baby Crib
Three baby cribs were carried on the crest of the flood for more than a mile, but rescue workers were unable to reach them. It was believed the occupants were drowned.

Confusion reigned in the two communities. Frantic parents leading frightened children were taken to safety through the muddy waters by Mexican troops, police and fire departments.

It was virtually impossible to cross the international line. International Street, bisected by the boundary fence, was a raging river. The flood struck three feet of water covered part of the American town's business district. In the Mexican settlement, five feet of water was reported.

Red Cross Ask Aid
To care for the refugees, the Nogales Chapter of the American Red Cross planned to ask national headquarters in Washington for $25,000.

The dead were identified tentatively as Joseph Morelone and his wife, both 60 years.

Transportation into Mexico was disrupted when the flood waters carried away more than 200 feet of the main line of the Southern Pacific of Mexico.

20,000 PEOPLE PARTICIPATED IN OPENING OF PEORIA AVENUE MEMORIAL BRIDGE LAST NIGHT

About 20,000 people attended the informal opening of the new Peoria Avenue Memorial bridge last evening, the crowd far exceeding the most optimistic expectations of the committee of business men who were responsible for the successful program which marked the opening of the beautiful structure.

The crowd began gathering early in the afternoon and remained until after midnight, enjoying the fine program of entertainment which was provided without charge.

The concert by the Dixon Boys' band beginning at 7:30 continued until 8:45 and was thoroughly enjoyed. There was some delay in clearing the center of the bridge, which was a packed mass of humanity from end to end, for the fireworks display and this was followed by the dancing on both ends of the bridge. The floor of the bridge was sprinkled with 500 pounds of corn meal for the dancers, who remained until midnight.

A parade of automobiles and foot passengers across the bridge, marked the close of the program.

All barricades were removed and the bridge thrown open to traffic at the close of the program. Hundreds of cars passed over the new structure after midnight and many who were unable to join in the first procession of cars to drive over the new bridge were using it today. The celebration was a huge success from every angle and attracted one of the largest crowds that has assembled in years.

The affair was arranged and financed by the original instigators of the bridge.

TAKES ACTION TO CARRY ALL NEEDING HELP

Announcement of Plan is Made at Washington this Afternoon

Washington, Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—The Federal Farm Board today announced it would lend money to farmers in drought-stricken areas to permit them to purchase feed for livestock.

Under the plan, it has formulated farmers and businessmen in stricken areas will form local cooperative agencies for borrowing money from the Farm Board through its grain stabilization Corporation. These local associations will guarantee repayment of the loans, which will enable farmers to carry their livestock through the winter.

While the Farm Board was announcing its farm relief plan, President Hoover conferred at length on the drought situation with Secretary of Agriculture Hyde. At the conclusion of the discussion Hyde announced that the White House would dispatch today a telegraphic questionnaire to every county farm agent in the entire country in an attempt to measure the exact damage of the drought and to determine means to alleviate the situation.

Under the Agriculture Marketing Act, the Federal Farm Board has farmers in any stricken community, county, district or state will form under the laws of their own state a responsible corporation which will guarantee the payment of notes to be given by individual farmers, a plan probably can be quickly developed whereby the Grain Stabilization Corporation can sell feed grains of any kind in car lots at market prices on easy payments of 1 or 2 years.

"The local organization would arrange for local distribution of the feed thus supplied and see to the collection of the farmers' notes when due. It would make no profit on its own services and would make proper local arrangements for the payment of freight."

"The Federal Board can in this way help every community that is willing to help itself."

Del Rio Married At Santa Barbara, Cal.

Santa Barbara, Cal., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Dolores Del Rio, Mexican film star, became the bride of Cedric Gibbons, studio art director, before the altar of the 150-year-old Franciscan Mission yesterday, after obstacles threatening to postpone the ceremony were dissolved.

The wedding was a simple as the old adobe church they choose as a setting.

Miss Del Rio was dressed in a gray suit, close fitting gray hat and gray pumps. She carried a bouquet of orchids and gardenias. Gibbons wore a blue business suit.

At the marriage license bureau the actress gave her age as 24, and stated it was her second marriage. Gibbons is 40 and also had been married once. Miss Del Rio's first husband, Jaime Del Rio, died while abroad last year after they were divorced.

Some question arose yesterday as to whether she had been divorced.

Because she had been divorced whether the ceremony could be performed in the old mission as planned. The actress obtained a letter from the Rev. Father Stack, of her Hollywood parish, however, which appointed out her first husband had died, and forestalled the possible refusal of the mission.

Have You Heard?

You can make decorative ornaments from your old perfume and lotion bottles by removing all labels and filling them with colored water. An artistic woman has a modernistic row of shelves built on either side of her dressing table, with the back of the shelves silver leafed. Against this the colorful bottles gleam and sparkle with real beauty. A single shelf arrangement is fine for a living room or studio.

Aerial Wedding Sunday at Springfield

Springfield, Ill., August 7.—(UP)—An aerial wedding, to be followed by an aerial honeymoon is the plan of Wilson E. Briegel, 25, Springfield, and Miss Marias Robertson, 22, Nokomis, who have arranged to stage Springfield's first airplane wedding next Sunday.

The wedding will be public—that is, for a consideration, the consideration being that every person on the air field must pay five cents for the privilege of being present and car owners must pay fifteen cents for the privilege of parking their cars in addition to the five cent toll per person.

The wedding plane will be piloted by Craig Isbell, local flyer and tentative arrangements call for County Judge O. B. Irwin to perform the ceremony.

The wedding, according to present arrangements, will be held at a height of 1,000 feet and the extent of the aerial honeymoon is contingent on the drawing power of the unique wedding.

The couple plan to fly to Chicago, or, if the endurance flyers are still in the air at St. Louis, Mo., the honeymoon will be to Lambert field in that city, to be followed by a motor tour of the Ozarks.

Miss Robertson, who has yet to make an airplane flight, will have an aviatrix costume for her wedding "dress." She plans to make several flights this week to avoid being "flighty" at the altar.

When we're gasping for air and the whole world seems to be burning in a crisp it is hard to get our thoughts untangled enough to concentrate on fall and its problems.

Yet fall is only one jump ahead—fall and college. And if Jim or Kay is to have a school career away from the home town, it is high time to do a little planning. Once plans are made, things definitely decided on, affairs automatically go better.

"Well begun is half done," and in this case I should say over half. As a matter of fact, getting a boy or girl ready for school can be done in a week if a few preliminaries are settled. I've known mothers to spend months on the college trousseau, for the first adventure, then after spending the third or fourth one, say, "You'd better run down town today, my dear, and get what you think you will need."

No Tremendous Event
No hand-worked initials now, no sachet bags; the have learned to take school as a matter of course not as a debut. And isn't it sensible?

Many girls' schools now limit the wardrobe, and it's a big help. If special uniforms are worn and in many of the best schools they are, preparatory and "finishing" schools especially, it is a great relief. Usually the schools themselves attend to the ordering—all you have to do is to send sizes—and a check! This, of course, should be done early as it takes time to fill orders. Other things that should be ordered ahead of time are the women names that have to be sewn on clothes, towels, sheets and underwear. A day will do the job of sewing on—one of the most tedious, by the way—if leave things about and they do get lost unless marked. We lost an expensive camera once because we didn't wish to deface it. Better to mark things up a bit than to lose them.

Most schools require the following items: two blankets, a warm comfort, six sheets, six pillow slips, one dozen linen towels, one dozen bath towels, and one dozen napkins.

Others things needed will be a trunk, a traveling case, a laundry bag and possibly two laundry boxes to mail things home.

Gym outfits are often ordered through the school. Crew outfits, for instance, must be alike. I should not load the new student at first with a lot of unnecessary clothes. Get her measure or his and keep it. Let them write home for the special type of clothes they will need, for different types of schools in different climates create their own demands. Too many students go away with fancy wardrobes they won't have the least bit of use for. Sports things are always good. And remember this: most schools wear summer things long after we discard them at home.

RUFFLED NECKLINES—STILL PARIS FAVORITES—
PARIS—(AP)—Ruffled necklines remain favorites with Parisian women.

Smart necklines are frequently outlined with softly gathered or finely tucked width of the dress material. Even black dresses are treated in this fashion. When a touch of white is desired the white ruffle is newest when placed beneath the black.

Mrs. J. H. Hurst of Angleton, Texas, is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Lehman in Bluff Park.

The whole family is turned loose on it. I found a rubber stamp very helpful. One may be ordered ahead like the woven names, so it will be ready to put to work later. The names are to be had at the notion counters of department stores; the stamps from any dealer in rubber goods, or sport departments. The full name should be on it. Get a pad of indelible ink for it, also.

Stamp Is Valuable
This stamp does for all sorts of odds and ends that names cannot be sewn on. A roll of adhesive tape comes in handy here. Tennis racquets, cameras, overshoes and like things can be identified if a strip of adhesive tape is pasted on and stamped. Children are careless and

THAT $1,000,000 SALARY.

The slightly worried American who lies awake at night wondering how he can boost his $60-a-week salary to $65 can be pardoned, probably, if he takes a keen, envious interest in the salary enjoyed by Mr. Eugene Grace, president of Bethlehem Steel.

Grace, according to published figures, draws $12,000 a year. That alone is not a great deal, as industrialists' pay checks go, although it would look like riches to 90% of his fellow citizens. But in addition he has a sort of sliding scale percentage arrangement, by which his annual salary runs to something in excess of $1,000,000—and that, from any angle, is a great deal of money.

Indeed, it is so much money that some prominent people have been wondering, in print, if any executive can possibly be worth it. It has been suggested that no man's services, under any circumstances, can deserve such pay; that Grace in short, is getting too much money.

No one except a stockholder in Bethlehem Steel need worry very greatly about it; and in a general way it may be said that American corporations are not in the habit of paying out money without getting full value for it. If Bethlehem's directors feel that their president earns such a salary, that would seem to settle it.

However, those who fear that wealth is tending to concentrate in the hands of a few people will probably find an ominous portent in this Grace salary. Grace may be worth a million a year to Bethlehem Steel; but is it to the best interest of the country to have such enormous salaries paid to single individuals?

If you set out to answer that question you probably would be discussing socialism before you got through. Without going into that phase of it, it seems safe to say that under our present economic system million-dollar salaries are not at all out of place.

A clever stock manipulator, for instance, can make more than a million dollars a year—and can do it without producing anything of value to anyone, simply by juggling trading accounts; by gambling, in plain English.

A heavily press-agented movie star can make very close to that sum—and he be an empty-headed, shallow-souled moron into the bargain.

A heavyweight prize fighter, if conditions are right, can do it.

An unscrupulous racketeer in a big city can get his million a year—and remove a number of his fellow citizens from circulation while he is doing it.

The industrial, like Grace, is at least giving his country something. He is producing things—turning out a definite product in return for his salary and providing employment for thousands and adding to the general prosperity of the country.

Obviously, this million-a-year that Eugene Grace is getting is not as disturbing as it might be.

JUSTIFYING HIGH PRICES.

On occasion of a recent convention of book publishers, reduction in book prices was announced. It was in the trend of the time. Inflation is being taken out of prices that have been too high. The Book Publishers' Research institute, recently organized to gather and disseminate information on the book publishing industry, has issued a statement intended to justify books at $2.50 and upward, by itemizing costs.

The circle that sent all prices skyward during and after the war now is in reverse motion. It is not whirling rapidly, but in spite of efforts to stop them, commodities are cheapening.

We ask for normalcy and then try to stop it.

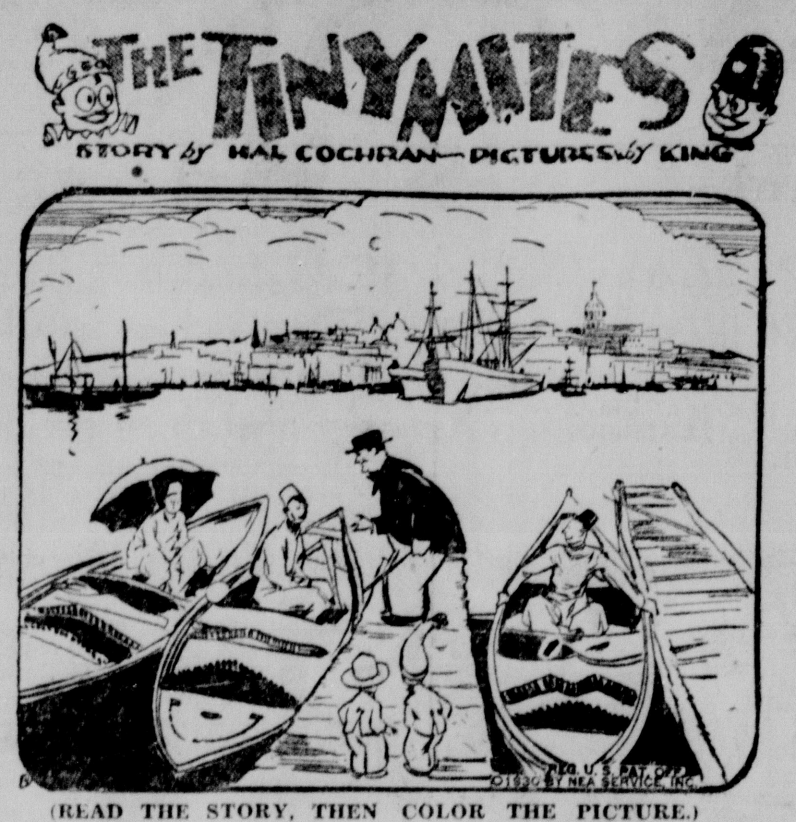

Probably the most important factor in halting the downward movement, if it is halted, will be increased freight rates recently authorized by the interstate commerce commission. The commission had been working a long time, years perhaps, upon the new rate schedule, and conditions now are different in many respects from those prevailing when the inquiry was begun.

We consider this a time inappropriate for increasing rates that are basic and are reflected in every commodity. There are many items which by themselves may go up or down, according to supply or demand or additional service rendered, not affecting many other commodities, but railroad rates go into everything.

On an upward trend of prices generally, any commodity or service could be carried along on the wave. When the trend is downward introduction of additional basic cost is looked upon in a different light.

Cyril Tolley, former British golf champion, is considering locating in Chicago. Probably in an effort to improve his shots.

Now that Denmark has decided to dispose of its only two cruisers, opponents of disarmament will be expected to laugh it off with the remark: "There's something rotten in Denmark."

THE TYNMITES
STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE.)

The Mediterranean Sea was quite a scene and every Tynmite enjoyed the boat ride they were on. It was a heap of fun. Out sight of land they never went and 'round the deck their time was spent. The ship was very large and there was lots of room to run. "I'll tell you what," said Clowney. "We can play some games. Now, hark to me and I'll suggest one we'll all like. Let's make it hide and seek. We'll find a lot of spots, all right. Now we can hide far out of sight. Where I'll be it and, while I count, the rest of you all sneak!"

He started counting. "Two, four, six—" and Clowney cried, "None of your tricks. Be fair and count off one by one." So that's what Clowney did. The others scampered merrily and it was lots of fun to see the funny places they picked out. In his time they all hid.

The Clowney shouted, "Here I come. You'll find that I am not so dumb."

No matter where you're hiding, I will find you mighty quick." Then, shortly, as he found each one, right back to goal he'd promptly run. The whole bunch had a lot of laughs and thought the game was slick.

The Travel Man then said, "Well, boys, you'll have to stop our fun and noise. We're pulling into Istanbul. My, what treats it has in store." Up to the deck rail they all ran. The shore line they could easily scan. The boat then landed safely and they scampered out on shore.

"Constantinople was the name of this big town and then there came a change and now it's Istanbul," said the Travel Man. "Take note of boats that bog round, side by side. They're here to take folks for a ride. You see, a man is waiting for his trade, in every boat."

GENERAL WOOD'S DEATH

On August 7, 1927, Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, governor-general of the Philippines, and veteran of the Spanish-American and World Wars, died at a Boston hospital following a brain operation.

Wood entered the army as a surgeon after graduating from Harvard medical school. When McKinley became president, Wood went to the White House as his personal physician. At the outbreak of the Spanish-American War in 1898, Wood helped his close friend Theodore Roosevelt raise and lead the famous regiment of "Rough Riders." For his conduct in the war he was elevated to major general.

Fiddle Wooser Finally Quits; His Nose Punched

Evansville, Ind.—(UP)—A "fiddle flirtation" that ended in a blow on the nose for the musical wooer was related in Evansville city court by Thomas Connolly, 40, who was cast as the irate husband.

Connolly was charged with assault and battery upon James Oakley 25, but after Connolly told his side of the story, the charges were dismissed by Special Judge Ollie Reeves.

Oakley, who lives across the street from the Connollys, would sit on his porch and watch Mrs. Connolly, 36, mother of three children moving about in her front yard, it was charged.

"Then he would go in the house and get out his fiddle," Connolly said. "He'd play 'I'm Watching You'—until the whole neighborhood could hear."

"Mrs. Connolly would walk down the street. 'Wherever You Go, I'm Following You,' were the strains Oakley would play."

"He'd mix these up with something like 'I'm in Love, So in Love, Love Me.' That's what made me the maddest."

"After about three weeks of this I got good and mad, so I went over and asked him if he was flirting with my wife."

Oakley denied that he was, according to witnesses, but Mrs. Connolly said that he was.

"So I just naturally smacked him a couple," Connolly said. Oakley had Connolly arrested on assault and battery charges.

Special Judge Reeves lectured all parties concerned when he dismissed charges against Connolly and cautioned Oakley to be careful in his selection of violin pieces in the future.

RATE OF SUICIDE FOR WOMEN IN GERMANY RISES

Decrease of Prosperity for Year Causes Increase in Self Destruction

Berlin—(UP)—The number of suicides in Germany remained about as high in 1928 as it was in 1927, numbering about 16,000, but women's suicides increased as compared to men's, the latest official statistics revealed.

This tendency has been observed for several years. In 1926, for instance, 133 women out of every 100,000 committed suicide, their rate rising to 145 two years after. During the same period, the number of male suicides dropped from 39 to 36.4 out of every 100,000.

The number of suicides does not vary widely from year to year. Nevertheless, periods of declining trade show an increasing suicide rate. Thus 1926, a year marked by a severe economic crisis, revealed the highest suicide rate after the war—26.2 per 100,000 inhabitants. Official statistics of the year 1929 have not yet been completed, but it is believed that the unfavorable business situation during that year resulted in an increase of the number of suicides, approaching the record of 1926.

Another remarkable phenomenon was the steep decline of the suicide rate in big cities during years of favorable trade; a decline which sharply contrasted with the increase of suicides in the purely agricultural districts of Eastern Germany reflecting an unabated economic crisis in these districts.

Juvenile suicides have been increasing constantly during the past few years, but they remain much less numerous than before the war. In Africa there are about 600 languages; in India 222.

AUTO RACES AT AMBOY FAIR TO BE A FEATURE

Management Paying Es- pecial Attention To These Events

Amboy, Aug. 7.—Patrons of the popular Lee County Fair to be held here August 20-23 were more than pleased with the initial auto race program staged on the final day of the fair last year, and the management has decided to continue with this feature again this season. Those in charge are doing everything in their power to make the program even faster and more thrilling than last year.

Entry blanks have been sent to all of the leading drivers of the mid-west including such stars as Gus Schrader, Iowa dirt track champion; Johnny Gerber, the Kansas champion; Charles "Dutch" Bauman, Indiana champion; Bryan Saulpaugh, Illinois champion; Maynard Clark, Walter Trevelan, Cecil Burnaguh, Fay Gardner, Vernon McCombe, Ka Young, Art Pichy, Bob Sorrenson, and a score of other speed demons.

Saulpaugh, it will be remembered, drove a most sensational race here last year and almost nosed out Karl Young of Chicago for first place in the main event. An effort is being made to get Young back to defend his Lee county championship.

The program has been changed for this season in order to give the fans added races and to increase the speed in the competitive preliminaries. At 1 o'clock sharp there will be a parade of all the cars which will compete in the afternoon program. After circling the track twice they will be given full sway of the track to get their machines warmed up. At 1:15 the cars will all be flagged down and lined up in front of the grandstand for their time trials.

The cars time by circling the track once. The car making the fastest time is given the pole position and the car making the second best time gets the next position and so on down the line. The fastest 16 cars will appear in the preliminary events and 10 fastest cars of the preliminary events will compete in the main race.

There will be five preliminary events starting promptly at 2:30 o'clock. The two fastest cars of each preliminary event will be entitled to race in the big final.

The preliminary events will be five laps each. The event will be 20 laps or 10 miles. Each and every event should prove a real thriller.

The fair management will have the track in the best possible condition and the entire track will be soaked with water the night before and early Saturday morning the day of the race the track will be covered with calcium chloride to keep the dust down.

This season the little racing creations are much faster than last season and records are being broken on almost every track in the country. The present arrangement of the program should aid in the establishment of new track records here.

There will be no dull moments from start to finish and everything will be run off early in the quickest possible time.

From early in the morning up until time for the parade the drivers will try out their cars. This always furnishes plenty of excitement and thrill for the morning crowd.

The auto races will be run the final day of the fair this year as they were last year, which will be Saturday, August 23. The race program for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the fair will be taken up with harness horse and running races for which a fast and full field of entries have already been received by the speed superintendent of the local track.

RELIEF FOR LIVE-STOCK INDUSTRY, NOW GREAT NEED

Farm Board Turning Its Efforts From Wheat Grower to Stockman

BY T. W. INGOLDSBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Omaha, Neb., Aug. 7.—(UP)—The battle lines of the Federal Farm Board have shifted from efforts to help the wheat farmer, whose product constitutes but 8 per cent of the agricultural wealth of the country, to the livestock industry, which constitutes 40 per cent, Alexander Legge, Chairman of the Board, said in an interview here.

Legge is en route to the west, where he will tell Idaho and Montana farmers of the work being done by the Farm Board.

The wheat situation will solve itself because of the drought, which has burned pastures and corn fields in all parts of the country, Legge said.

He advised farmers to discontinue selling their wheat at present low levels and stop buying corn at prevailing comparatively high prices.

"Experts from state agricultural colleges will tell us there is more fattening power in a bushel of wheat than there is in corn, if it is properly mixed," Legge said. "The mixing varies in the various states. Farmers should consult their agricultural colleges and do as the experts tell them."

"If they do, the surplus of wheat will soon pass away and the livestock situation will be saved at the same time."

Opinion Unchanged
The drought has not changed Legge's belief that wheat farmers should cut down acreage, he said.

"We have an unusual situation this year," he said. "In average years there would be no need to feed wheat to livestock."

Legge said that Secretary of Agriculture Hyde's estimate of a 500,000,000 bushel corn shortage this year was "only too true."

Corn fields and pastures from a line beginning at the National Capital and running clear through to central Missouri are practically all burned up, he said.

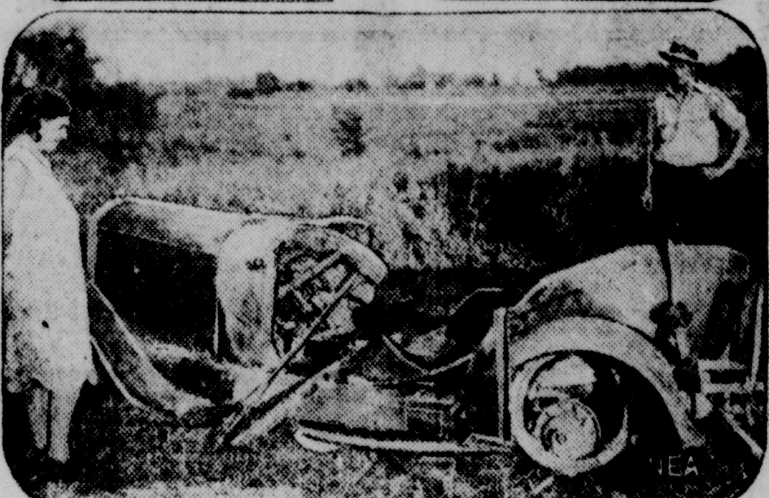

"Farmers in that section are being forced to throw their dairy cattle and steers on the market for what they will bring," he said.

"There is absolutely no feed for them on the farms. This is the most regrettable part of the drought."

"It means the breaking up of dairy herds. It will take at least six years to rebuild these herds which are being destroyed in a single season."

"That is why I believe our greatest problem now is to care for the livestock industry."

Dies Mysteriously on Wedding Eve

A mystery as puzzling as a fictional thriller faced Clyde, Ohio, officials investigating the death of Russell C. Gibbs, 22, auto dealer, a few hours before he was to have been married to Miss Doris Kuns, 21, both of whom are shown here. Gibbs was found burned to death at the wheel of his coupe, wreckage of which is shown above. The fact that charred strands of rope were found around his neck caused authorities to believe he was murdered and the car burned to cover up the crime.

PATRONAGE IN SOUTH BEFORE REP. COMMITTEE

Likely To Cause Warm Argument At Meeting In Capital

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The old intra-party dispute over the handling of southern patronage broke out with renewed vigor today as Republican party executives gathered here to settle the long pending controversy over the chairmanship of the National Committee.

Horace A. Mann, Washington lawyer, who managed President Hoover's 1928 southern campaign, warned administration forces in general and Postmaster General Brown in particular that his "little band" of followers below the Mason-Dixon line would stand for no further "outside interference" and henceforth would conduct southern political affairs in their own way.

A statement by Mann, explaining the purposes of last week's Savannah, Georgia, meeting of his followers, rang with such phrases as "designing political high-jackers" and "interloping element of carpet-baggers."

Postmaster General Brown replied to the ultimatum with the statement that he belonged to no committee with power to dispense federal patronage throughout the south and that his sole purpose in setting up advisory committees in four southern states was to "get the best possible postal service, not subject to barter."

He said he handled only postoffice appointments, that other Cabinet officers selected men for their departments, and that the Savannah meeting of the "eight disgruntled men" would not make the "slightest difference" to him.

Indications were the meeting of the national committee's executive group would take no official notice of Mann's pronouncement, but would proceed with the pre-determined business of accepting the promised resignation of Claudius Huston of Tennessee as National Chairman, and naming new heads to speed along plans for the congressional elections.

Senator Fess of Ohio was slated for appointment as provisional chairman, pending ratification at a fall meeting of the National Committee, and Robert H. Lucas of Kentucky, now Internal Revenue Commissioner, was to be formally chosen chairman of the executive committee.

THAT the persistent advertiser wins.

Merchants who advertise quality and service and back it up with the right kind of merchandise are the successful business men of today.

These firms learned long ago that selling is just as important as buying and that the chief factor in selling is letting the public know they are in business and what they have to sell.

They use truthful advertising. They advertise in plain English so everyone can know what they have to offer.

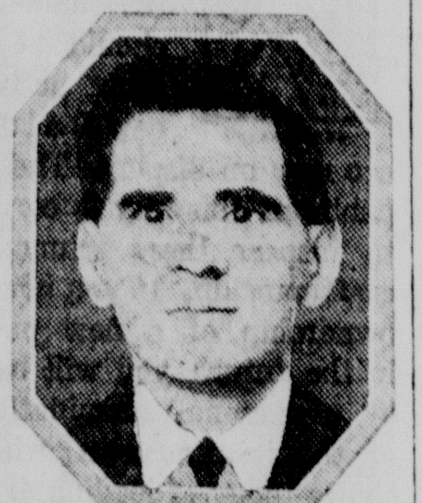

They back up their ads with quality goods and service, and, by so doing, have gained the confidence of the public.

They have always given a square deal to their customers and in this way have retained the old customers and gained new ones.

KONJOLA GIVES BACK 30 POUNDS THIS MAN LOST

Noted Improvement in His Condition After Taking First Bottle of Modern Medicine.

MR. CHARLES GARRETT.

Do you wonder why seven million bottles of Konjola were used in two years? The answer is that Konjola does what it is designed to do. Read the grateful words of Mr. Charles Garrett, Edlestein, Ill., and then decide what you will do about Konjola. He says:

"I was in a terribly run down condition, the result of indigestion. I was hungry, but could not eat, and then my appetite failed me. I lost thirty pounds and was getting worse and worse all the time. I read so much about Konjola that I decided to try it. Right from the first bottle I noted improvement, and today I am back to my former weight; appetite is good and digestion is all I could wish. I have recommended Konjola to others and all are pleased with the results they got."

Konjola does act swiftly, attacking at the source the ill. Konjola is designed to relieve, but a complete treatment of from six to eight bottles is strongly recommended.

"Konjola is sold and recommended by all the better drug stores in Dixon, Ill., and throughout this section."—Adv.

PLANS FOR AID TO VICTIMS OF DROUGHT MADE

Railroads Pledge Aid In Messages To Mr. Hoover Today

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Preparations to extend relief to the drought suffering nation went on apace today under the direction of President Hoover while reports pouring in to government agencies indicated the possibility of damages approaching the billion dollar mark unless rains fall soon.

With nothing but local showers indicated by the Weather Bureau for the suffering sections in the immediate future, the Farm Board was studying a possibility of extending substantial credit to livestock and cotton farmers through emergency interpretation of the federal marketing act.

Secretary Hyde, hastening back from the west, planned a conference with the President immediately upon his return today. Assurance reached the President from the railroads of the drought areas that they would cooperate in any measures determined upon by the administration to get feed and cattle together, reduction of freight rates on hay and feed into the cattlegrowing areas and possibly free transportation of livestock to unaffected grazing lands are under contemplation but a decision will await the detailed report on conditions which the Agriculture Department has promised to give Mr. Hoover on Monday.

The Farm Loan Board placed itself on record as willing to do all possible to extend credit through the intermediate credit banks, the Farm Land Banks and Joint Stock Land Banks. From Congressional quarters came many requests for help and these has been added the offer of Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, to undertake a refund by Congress to the Farm Board if the latter would divert all its available funds to drought relief.

FANS LOOK FOR REAL SCRAP IN GARDEN TONIGHT

Kid Chocolate And Berg Two Clever, Hard-Hitting Boys

BY FRANK GETTY
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—Tenor Little Cuban Negro, who has never been licked in 166 professional fights, and a sturdy ambitious young Hebrew from the rough and tumble Whitechapel section of London will battle through ten rounds, or less, at the Polo Grounds tonight.

The remarkable thing about this bout between Kid Chocolate and Jack (Kid) Berg is that even the most cynical boxing fans, disillusioned by repeated disappointments in title affairs, believe this meeting between the two aspirants for the lightweight championship is going to be a real scrap.

After what transpired when Al Singer took the title away from what remained of Sammy Mandell last month, such confidence certainly deserves to be more than its own reward, and there is every reason to believe that Chocolate and Berg, will, for once, give boxing fans their money's worth.

Outcome Uncertain
As for the outcome of the bout, that is pleasingly uncertain. Berg will have nearly a 10 pound pull in the weights. The Londoner is a tireless, mauling type of fighter, with no science and possesses no real punch. Chocolate, on the other hand is the cleverest man, pound for pound, in the ring today, and a sharp hitter as well. Whether he can give away ten pounds and stand off a fighter of the rushing, two-fisted type he must meet tonight remains to be seen.

Berg is a slight favorite. The odds are said to be 6 to 5 on the Englishman. Chocolate, however, has a host of confident followers.

The men are battling ostensibly for a chance at the lightweight title so recently and so easily acquired by Singer. The odds are that if Chocolate wins, as he should, Singer will find some excuse to dodge the Cuban until next summer at the earliest. If Berg wins on points and doesn't appear too dangerous, Singer may consent to defend his title against the Londoner. The Cuban trimmed Singer handsomely last September.

The bout will not be broadcast. Madison Square Garden looks forward optimistically to a gate of $150,000.

SPORT BRIEFS

Milwaukee, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Abe Langtry, Secretary of the American Bowling Congress for 23 years, today said definitely that his resignation would be acted upon at a meeting of the executive committee of the Congress to be presided by H. W. Pollock, Buffalo, N. Y., president of the organization. Langtry refused to reveal the reason for his resignation.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Paul Neal, one of the leading jockeys of the Chicago district, is the first casualty of Hawthorne's racing season. Neal was thrown from his mount, Apple Brandy, in the first race yesterday and knocked unconscious. He was cut about the head but expects to be back in the saddle in a few days.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Grover Cleveland Alexander, now the enigma of minor league baseball managers, was up and around today apparently recovered from his recent illness. The former National League pitcher said he had been ill since last Friday and did not care to discuss new opportunities to get back into baseball.

London, Ont., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Minus the defender, the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship swung into the quarterfinal round today with three Americans in the running.

Eddie Held of New York, defending his title won last year, was eliminated yesterday by Carroll M. Stuart, of Montreal but J. Wood Platt and Raymond Ferguson of Philadelphia and Frank Connelly of Detroit remained in competition.

Today Connelly was scheduled to meet C. Ross Somerville of the London Hunt, twice holder of the title. Ferguson had Fred G. Hoblitzel of Toronto as his opponent while Platt was to meet Nicol Thompson, Jr., of Toronto.

New York, Aug. 7.—(AP)—For the first time in his long golf career, Walter Hagen will not be among those competing at Fresh Meadow Club, Flushing, in the September quest of the pro championship.

The five times holder of the title failed to qualify yesterday, when Young Horton Smith, Hagen's protégé, led the field over the Cherry Valley Club course. Smith scored a 139 for the 36 holes but Hagen took 149.

In addition to Smith, the qualifying group to represent the metropolitan district includes Johnny Farrell (Gene Sarazen), Bill Melhorn, Billy Burke, Pat Currell, Jimmy Hines, John Golden, Whiffy Cox and Jack Forrester.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Prices at the Saratoga sale of yearling thoroughbreds were soaring last night, when 42 head drew a total of $72,775 or an average of $1,733.

New York, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Eric Pedley, a hard riding, sharp shooting Californian, will be at No. 1 when the United States polo team lines up against the English in a series of international matches at Meadow Brook in September. At least that is the way the polo critics are figuring matters.

Riding at No. 1 on the "Varsity" Pedley has scored 34 goals against the "Red" in four test matches.

In yesterday's match Pedley at No. 1, rode against Winston Guest, slated to play back on the U. S. quartet. Despite this, the flashy Californian scored six of his team's eleven goals.

Southampton, N. Y., Aug. 7.—(AP)—With three members of the United States Davis Cup team in the quarter final round, the wise ones were predicting today that the Meadow Club invitation tournament would be won by Big Bill Tilden with Wilmer Allison and George Lott having an outside chance.

Big Bill stole the show yesterday, when he won two matches within the short space of two hours. The two victories coupled with a default placed him in the quarter-final along with Wilmer Allison, George Lott, Francis T. Hunter, Francis Shields, Sidney Wood, Richard Murphy and Edward Jacobs.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—Soldier Field, Chicago's gigantic lakefront stadium, may add another attendance record to its list.

Already holder of attendance records for football and boxing, the stadium is expected to break the 50,000 mark established for a track and field event when the British-American meet is held, August 27. The track record was established at Los Angeles in 1928 during the Pacific coast olympic tryouts.

Vice-President Charles Curtis has accepted an invitation to watch the international meet and he Prince of Wales has been asked to join him.

Evansville, Ill., Aug. 7.—(AP)—After 20 years experience as coach, critic and player, Coach Dick Hanley of Northwestern University picks his 1930 captain, Hank Bruder, as the greatest football player of all time.

"Bruder is no specialist," Coach Hanley said. "He can do everything. He can punt, he can pass, and he can run. More than that, he can receive a pass, which is harder than throwing one. No finer defensive man ever stepped on the gridiron. Injuries have held him back the last two years but watch him go this season."

Bruder flashed impressively during the start of the 1929 campaign but broke his leg, and was out for the season.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The championship trials of a pair of the best featherweights in the ring industry Earl Mastro of Chicago and Fidel La Barba, of Los Angeles, cross for the third time tonight in Chicago Stadium.

They will battle 10 rounds or less to a decision and the victor, if his triumph is decisive, expects to force his way to a title match with the champion of the division, Bat Battalino.

Tonight's match, which opens the Stadium after a six weeks shutdown will be the rubber battle between the two. They have met twice previously, La Barba taking the decision first and Mastro winning the second in the same manner with much the same slim margin. As a result, odds were about even.

LaBarba To Make Strong Bid Tonight

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—Fidel LaBarba of California, former world flyweight champion, will make his bid for recognition as the foremost contender for the featherweight title, in a 10-round bout with Earl Mastro of Chicago, at Chicago Stadium tonight.

La Barba, Mastro, Kid Chocolate and Bat Battalino are rated as the leaders of the featherweight class, with the champion regarded as a weak fourth. Chocolate has deserted the 125-pound division to try for the lightweight title and unless he suffers a setback in his match with Kid Berg at New York tonight, the winner of the Mastro-La Barba bout probably will get the first chance at Battalino's title.

Mastro and La Barba have met twice before, each winning one decision and there is little to choose between the two on comparative records. Mastro was an early favorite in the betting but the odds are close and it is probable that the fighters will enter the ring at even money.

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Rolling into the west where the National League pennant is waiting to be won, the Brooklyn Robins today have a most auspicious beginning of a crucial trip to spur them on.

Straining to establish a lead that can stand the stress of slumps and battle with chief contenders yet to come, the Robins scored a 7 to 4 conquest over Pittsburgh in opening the Pirate series yesterday, while the St. Louis Cardinals rose to swat the Chicago Cubs and add to the lead of the Robins, now 3½ games in front of the league champions of 1929.

An extra-base hit, George Watkins' pinch hit home run in the seventh with one on gave the Cards a 9 to 1 defeat, making it six in a row for the Tigers.

The mightiest hurling of the day was turned in by Coffman of the St. Louis Browns in the opening game of a doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox. Coffman shut out the Sox 5 to 0 and allowed three hits but ancient Red Faber got just

Chicago Druggist Pacing Tournament

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Paced by Al Quigley, 39-year-old druggist of Chicago, who rose to tournament heights from grivo as a caddy, public links golfers of the nation today entered the first round of match play in their ninth annual championship.

Brooklyn, whose four-man team won the Harding Cup with the brilliant score of 311, was represented by five mashie swingers in the match play to decide the successor to Carl Kauffman on Pittsburgh, thrice champion, disqualified through an inadvertent error in scoring.

Portland, Ore., had three men in the match play. Louisville, which was second in team play, placed two men in the matches. Jacksonville, likewise had two men in the elect 32, as did Detroit.

To capture the quacking medal Quigley shot a sparkling 71 yesterday which coupled with his 74 of the first day, gave him 145, five strokes ahead of Bob Wingate, Jacksonville. Henry Fabrizio, Brooklyn and Harry T. Given the youthful electrician from Seattle.

By Laufer Say Attorney Will Confess Uxoricide

Amarillo, Tex., Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—Officials announced today that A. D. Payne, Amarillo Attorney, had told them he was ready to confess he murdered his wife with a bomb in order that he might elope with his attractive former stenographer.

Sheriff W. N. Thompson, who made the announcement, said the attorney awaited only the arrival of his brother, Sid Payne, from a vacation in New Mexico, before making a statement admitting the crime.

Sheriff Thompson said Payne told him he had intended to commit suicide rather than be arrested.

Payne is in jail at Stinnett. Mrs. Payne was killed June 26 as she drove the family car along a downtown street here. A nitro-glycerine bomb exploded under the front seat, hurling her through the roof of the car to instant death.

Payne was charged formally with the slaying after Mrs. Verona Thompson, young widow and his former stenographer, told newspaper men and officials he had made love to her for months before the tragedy and had planned to do away with his wife.

SPORT BRIEFS

By UNITED PRESS
With the opening of the fifth and next to last interseasonal series of the baseball season set for tomorrow, only four major league games were scheduled today. All major league contenders except the New York Giants, however, were bled for action as follows:

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Philadelphia at Washington.
Boston at New York.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Brooklyn at Pittsburgh.
Chicago at St. Louis.

With a 3½ game lead over the second place Chicago Cubs, Brooklyn engaged the pirates in the second game of the national league leaders' final western journey, having stolen a march on the other eastern clubs by opening the trip yesterday with a 7 to 4 victory over Pittsburgh.

The Chicago Cubs lost a valuable game in the race by dropping a 4 to 3 decision to the St. Louis Cardinals. Punch-utler Watkins won the game with a fluke homer with a mate on base in the 7th inning. The Cubs filled the bases in the ninth but Jim Lindsey fanned Grimm and Hartnett to end the game.

Philadelphia had its lead in the American league reduced to 6½ games when the Senators beat the Athletics, 5-1. Sad Sam Jones out-pitched George Earnshaw, allowing the A's only six hits.

With Lou Gehrig coming out of his batting slump with a triple and single, the New York Yankees beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-2, and reduced the gap between first place to 9 games.

George Uhle pitched and batted Detroit to a 9 to 1 victory over Cleveland. Uhle made three singles and a double, while holding the Indians to three hits.

The St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox divided a double-header. Coffman pitching the Browns to a 6-0 victory in the first game and Red Faber winning the nightcap for the White Sox, 5-2.

Three runs in the ninth enabled the Boston Braves to trim the Phillies, 5-4, in the other national league contest.

COUSIN OF WAR
HERO TO RETIRE
FROM U. S. ARMY

Master Sgt. Frank York Is Expert at Training Prize Winning Horses

WASHINGTON.—(U.P.)—After 30 continuous years of service in the army, during which time he has given but 10 days furlough, Master Sergeant Frank York, cousin of the famous Sergeant Alvin York, is to be retired. York, who is one of the greatest horse trainers in the army, is now stationed at Fort Meyer, Virginia.

Enlisting in the army in September, 1902, York was assigned to the cavalry division and remained in this branch of the service with the exception of one year in the infantry in the Philippines. This time in the infantry counted doubly toward his retirement and he now has completed 30 years' service this year.

While with the cavalry in the World War, York was transferred to mounted messenger work and in this division he gained most of his experience with horses. Upon the signing of the Armistice, Sergeant York was transferred to the Army of Occupation in Germany, and was then transferred to Coblenz to assist in training the American horses for the Allied army, held in Paris in 1919.

As a reward for his work, he was allowed to return to the United States and was assigned to Fort Meyer. During his service at the Virginia post, York has trained many army horses for exhibitions and has won more than one hundred blue ribbons in competition.

Among the champions developed by Sergeant York are "Levi" known as the "equine airplane" because he could easily jump a six-foot barrier, "Applejack," with whom York has won as many as four blue ribbons in one day, and "Flash," another prize jumper. These horses are still on duty at Fort Meyer.

Upon retirement, York will be given a position as head trainer in a large Pennsylvania stable.

The Hollywood Story

COPYRIGHT 1930

by NEA SERVICE Inc.

by ERNEST LYNN

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Through a letter that he receives from a friend in New York, DAN RORIMER, Hollywood screenwriter and former New York newspaper man, meets ANNE WINTER, who has come from Tulsa, Okla., to try to get extra work in the movies.

Dan finds her charming and takes a deep interest in her. She learns from him that he works at Continental Pictures. She has worked only one day as an extra herself, having been there but a short time, but a few days after their meeting she gets extra work at Grand United.

Her first day there she meets a girl named MONA MORRISON, and immediately likes her. Mona is living with EVA HARLEY, and Anne lives alone, and Mona suggests that the three occupy a bungalow that she and Eva have seen.

They do this. When Dan calls on Anne one evening he learns from Mona that GARRY SLOAN, the famous director, actually has noticed Anne, and she may be given a "bit." Dan, not liking Sloan, although he has never actually met him, is a bit nonchalant.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER IX

THERE flashed through Rorimer's mind the picture of Garry Sloan and Sylvia Patterson seated at a restaurant table; and Johnny Riddle saying: "Sylvia's a swell girl; but Sylvia's ambitious—and she can be diplomatic."

And Dan wondered if Sylvia Patterson would be starring with Grand United if she had chosen not to be diplomatic to Sloan. Perhaps the thought was not exactly fair to Sylvia, though; the girl had an undeniable talent, and a rare, orchid-like beauty, and her fan mail, Riddle had said, was among the largest in Hollywood.

Perhaps, Sloan or no Sloan, she would have gone far. And yet, remembering how she had sat there smiling at him with eyes and lips listening with flattering attentiveness as the brawny director smoked and talked, Dan found it easy to think that perhaps Sylvia Patterson felt it was less to her choice than to her interests to feed Garry Sloan's vanity.

And Dan resented him. Anne Winter said, "I may be doing a bit in this picture yet. It sounds almost too good to be true, I know; but Mr. Sloan himself talked to me today and they may give me a few lines."

"Atta girl," Dan said encouragingly. "Didn't I tell you you'd knock 'em dead if you got a chance?" Rather abruptly he asked, "What do you think of Sloan?"

"He's rather wonderful, Dan," Anne got up from her chair and took a few nervous steps toward one of the front windows. There she stood, gazing into night and nothingness for a minute or two, and Dan perceived, when she turned her face toward him again, that she was highly agitated.

He said, "I'm nothing but a clumsy idiot to be staying when you should be resting. Tomorrow may mean a tremendous lot to you, and I'm keeping you from bed. You're a little nervous; you ought to have some hot milk and go right to sleep."

Anne said, "Oh, Dan, you talk as if I were a baby. I'm going to have sandwiches and coffee, and so are you. I'm—I'm just a little silly, I suppose. Only, it does mean a tremendous lot to me; you were right. And it shouldn't, of course; a bit is only a bit, after all—I'm only fooling myself if I think it means any more. I'll be looking for now I suppose I shall be looking for any kind of extra work and thinking myself lucky if I get it."

"How do you think it would feel, Eva, to have a steady job—for a month, even?"

RORIMER smiled. "I wish Dick Charles could hear you talk, Anne. I'm sure he'd be surprised at your humility. He isn't used to it. Dick says: 'Give an extra a bit and he automatically thinks he's a bit player and doesn't want to do extra work again.' And I suppose he knows as much about it as any casting director in Hollywood."

He went over to her and took her hand in his and patted it. "You're going to go over, Anne; I know it. There's nothing can stop you, because—well, because you've got more ability right now than nine-tenths of them. Wait till they hear you sing. Have you sung for them yet, Anne?"

Anne said, "Of course not, silly," and she laughed. "Why, I'd be frightened to death to sing for Garry Sloan."

"You sang for me," Dan reminded her. "I know, but I've such a tiny little voice, Dan."

He told her that she did not have to shout over the microphone. "Is there any chorus singing in the picture?" he asked.

Anne said there was not, and she proceeded to tell him the story of the picture. Its working title, she informed him, was "Married in May."

"Sylvia Patterson has several songs, and Raymond Marbury. And Pat Stanton and Mary Ellis have one or two. But there's no chorus singing. Mr. Sloan, though, has a wonderful male quartet in it. And he's building up one of the scenes—just before the quartet comes on. It's one of the house-party sequences—where we all wear sport clothes. You know? And he wants to give some lines to one or two of the unimportant guests. And that's where I come in."

Mona's cheerful voice from the kitchen announced loudly that coffee and sandwiches were on the way, and she and Eva followed a moment later

FREUDIAN SAYS HANDWRITING IS EASILY CHANGED

Doctor Pierre Menard Announces Results of Before and After Marriage Study

BY HENRY CUMMING
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
PARIS.—(U.P.)—Female handwriting undergoes marked changes after marriage, according to Doctor Pierre Menard, ardent Freudian and eminent French graphologist.
Commenting on the theory of the basic importance of the sex instinct in practically every phase of human conduct—the tenet so dear to the heart of Sigmund Freud—Doctor Menard asserts his conviction its influence has been noted on handwriting by carefully recorded experiments.
The French scientist recently made a collection of letters and postcards written by 18 young girls immediately before and after marriage. From this group he chose letters written by three subjects a week before and a week after they had acquired husbands. The difference affected in their handwriting in the lapse of two weeks is unmistakable, says the graphologist. Directions of lines, dimensions of letters, breadth of tracing, even commas and periods have altered, he declares.
So much for the mere graphic change. Doctor Menard, scientific student of character by means of handwriting, has undertaken to interpret the results thus gleaned. He contends that the graphic modifications noted indicate the following characteristics:
1. Better nervous equilibrium (increased regularity of writing.)
2. Freer, less constrained movements (improved spacing.)
3. Less egotism (smoother, less angular writing.)
4. Increased activity, generosity, artistic sense (firmness of writing, longer finals, more graceful form of letters.)
Doctor Menard concludes that graphology is one of the surest means known to chart the success of a woman's married life, provided there has been a continuity of recorded experiment. The profound changes wrought in the woman by the husband's influence, maternity, surrounding relations, instruction and the like may be indicated to a surprisingly accurate extent by the study of the subject's handwriting over a period of years, he points out.

Daily Health Talk

YOU AND YOUR PHYSICIAN
By Albert A. Getman

(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. The headquarters of the Institute are at 1331 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.)
Recent medical progress has been accomplished by a tremendous educational campaign, which has for its object "sensible information for the people regarding matters of health."
This systematic effort has been developed by national and state public health department, private foundations and charitable organizations. It has been productive of much good. Immunization against diseases, such as diphtheria, smallpox and typhoid; the feeding of infants; the value of sunshine; balanced diets; these are only a few of many subjects which are intelligently discussed by large numbers of people.
However, with this propaganda have come factors which are not so happy in their result. Undue restriction of diet, neglect of the dangers of fatigue, apprehension and the mystery surrounding infection—these are only a few of many health subjects which require careful handling. If future generations are to derive available benefits from our knowledge. For instance, rapid loss of weight is dangerous. Some people, by virtue of their inherited germ plasma, are bound to be stocky, and a deficient diet is certain to produce trouble. Eighteen holes of golf is too much if the player is done up by the fatigue. Apprehension and fear of disease are destructive forces. Worry

One bottle of Kruschen Salts (lasts 4 weeks) costs but 85c and one bottle will prove of vast benefit to people who have constipation, headaches, indigestion, nervousness, rheumatism, depression, acidity and auto-intoxication.
Not only that but one bottle will bring about body activity—increased energy, vigor and ambition, sparkling eyes and freedom from pimples and blemishes—millions know all this—you ought to know it. Take one-half teaspoon in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—walk a little each day—cut down on sweets and fat forming foods.

over blood pressure, a cardiac murmur, or albumin in the urine, may produce greater harm to a given individual than the actual disease process itself. Transmission of infection is too little understood. A child has whooping cough. He is not very ill, and after the acute stage, is allowed about the yard. A neighborhood child appears from nowhere, and the contact is made. The second child develops whooping cough—has a lowered resistance—broncho-pneumonia sets in, and a tragedy is at hand.
All of these subjects—by virtue of our increasing knowledge—are topics we have gone so far we must of necessity finish the job. "A little learning is a dangerous thing, drink deep or taste not the Pierian Spring."

Enter the doctor. A doctor is just as able as his understanding of disease process and his skill in applying the proper treatment. He is just as practical as his ability to transmit his understanding of the case to the patient, for by so doing he demonstrates the necessity of medical care. He must be a teacher. He should be in close touch, and work with the agencies devoted to medical teaching among the laity.

He must be a philosopher, for a sound undertaking of human problems is essential to proper knowledge of a given case. He must be a friend for only by close contact over considerable periods of time can he accomplish desired results.
Of course you have chosen the best physician. All the problems relative to health are his field. Discuss them with him in frank detail. Use him as your banker, or your lawyer—let him assume your medical worries and remember it is more easy to prevent than to cure disease.

An optimistic note predominated throughout the conference sessions and the consensus seemed to be that an upturn in retail business was due to start early in September.
Among the speakers at yesterday's opening session was D. F. Kelly, President of the Chicago Fair Store, who declared daily newspapers were the best medium for advertising and that department stores could compete successfully with chain stores if constructive merchandising methods were followed.

Phoenix, Ariz.—(U.P.)—During the last fiscal year the U. S. Biological survey employees and 4,000 co-operators, killed 102,000 pocket gophers in Arizona, according to announcement. A Gilchrist, assistant biologist.
